

ANCHORS AWAY

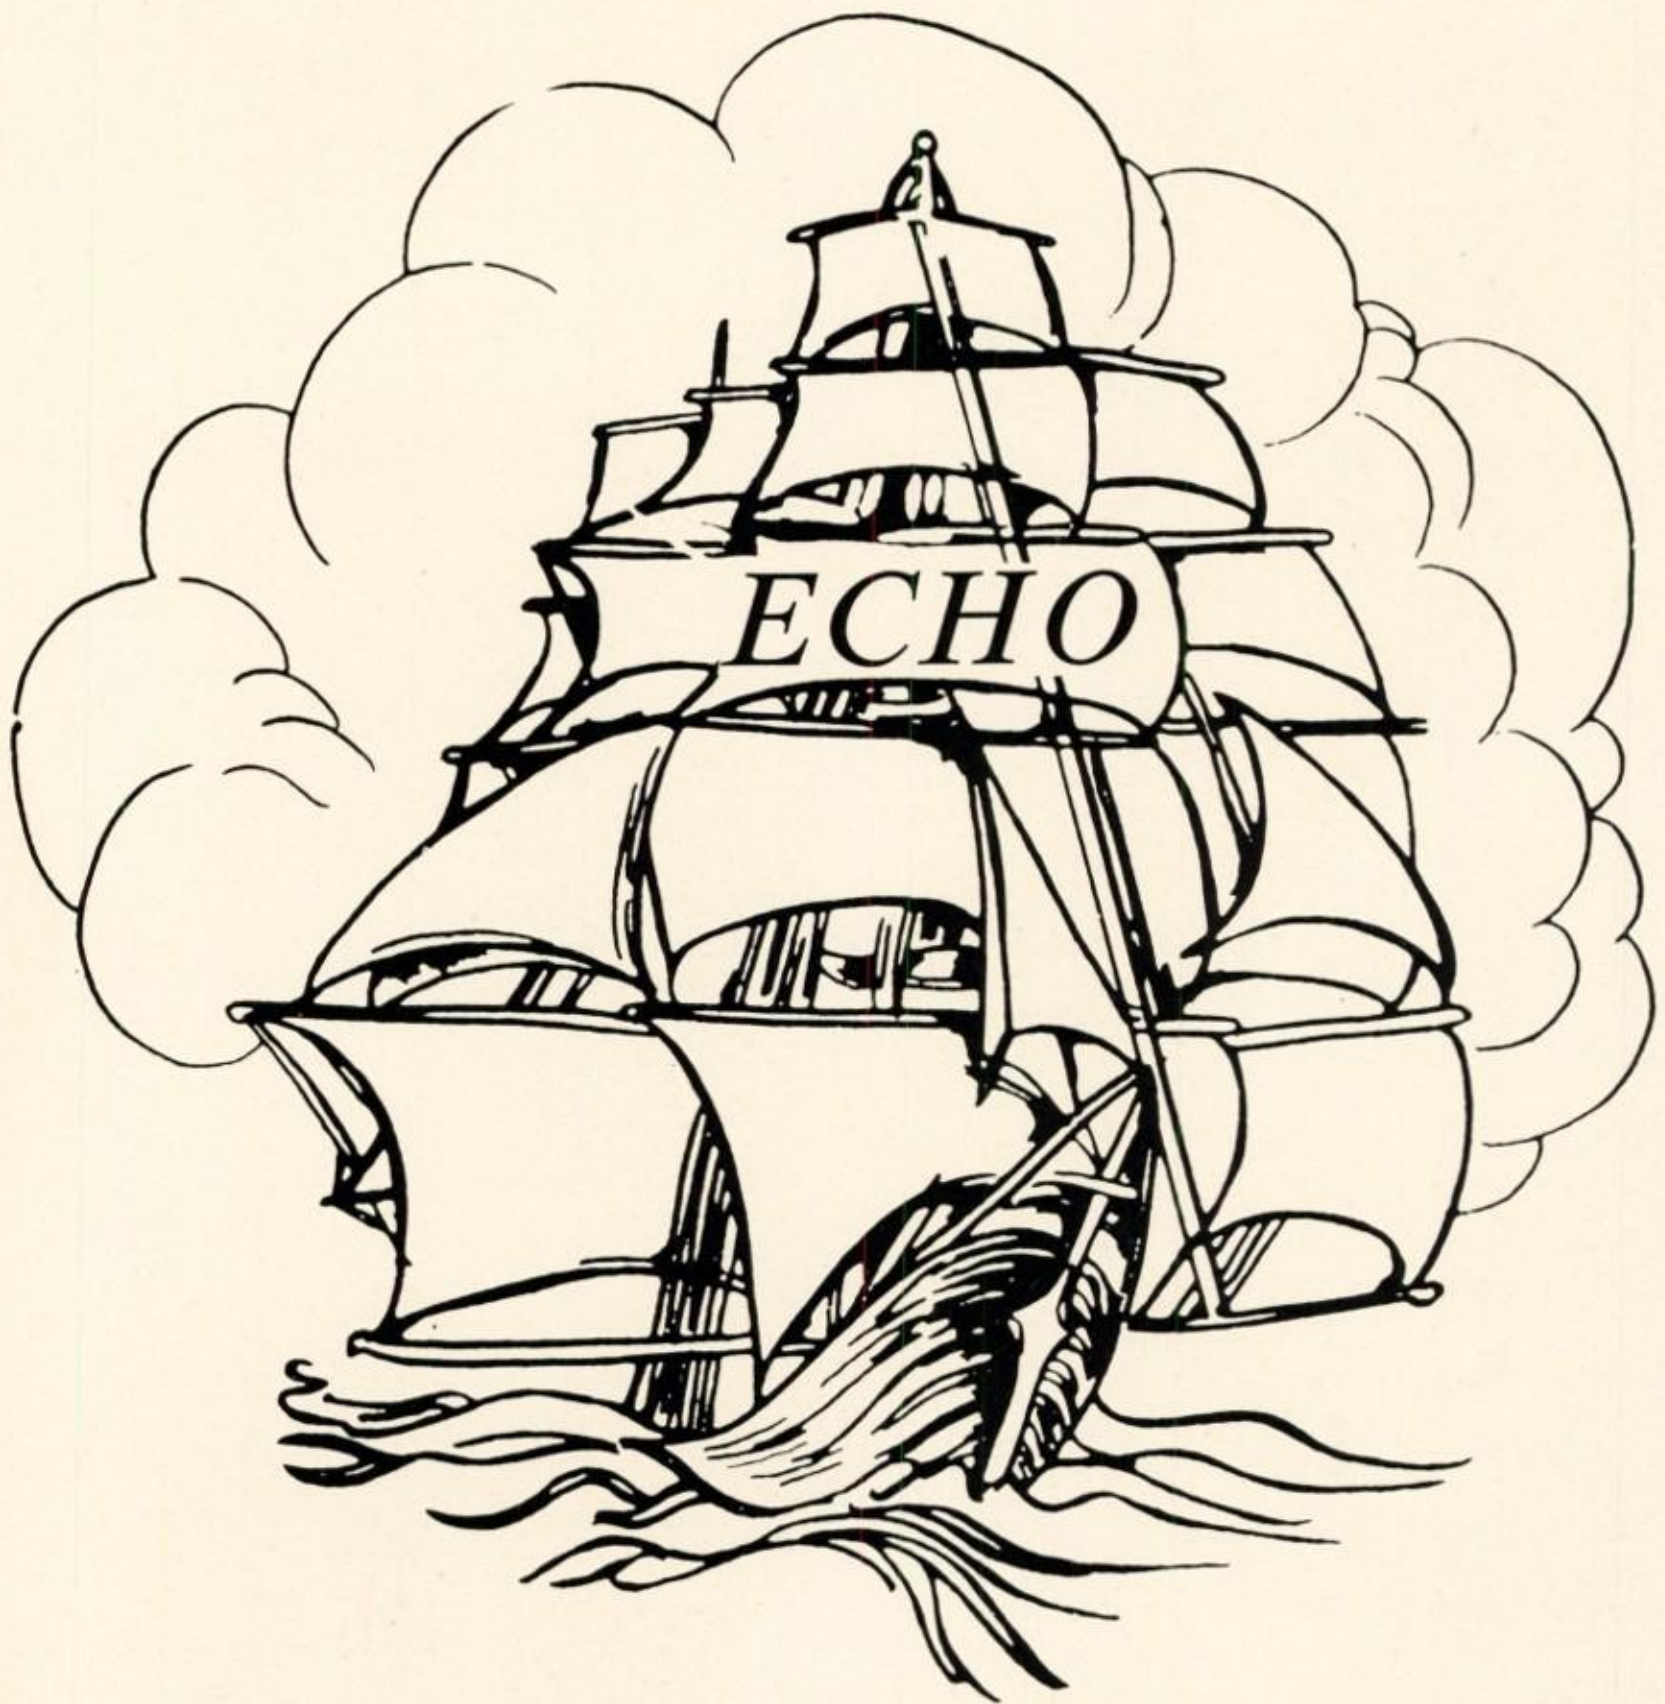

FOREWORD . . .

As our stately ship sails away from our school port where we have harbored so long, we wish to leave behind fond memories of the many parties, ball games, and other special events that we have shared with classmates and friends.

We hope that the memory of the "Echo" will remain in your hearts as we sail toward our future goals.

We are seaward bound in the 1962 . . .

Published by the Senior Class of Colfax High School,
Colfax, North Carolina

In your honor . . .

Mrs. Stack

Mrs. Bowman

Mrs. Fulp

We, the '62
Senior crew of the Echo, would like to express our appreciation to these captains for the years of loyal service they have given to the students of Colfax School.

In earlier years they provided us with the fundamentals of education, without which we would have never reached the end of our voyage.

It is with sincere gratitude that we honor these most deserving teachers.

Young Minds Strive Toward Future Goals . . .

Here we find Mrs. Godwin dutifully teaching her English students all about how to diagram those complex sentences while they listen skeptically on.

As Mr. Bracken points out to these three boys, the best way to saw a board apart is to do it without sawing the fingers off.

Home Economics Increase Chances for a Successful Home Life . . .

These two girls are contemplating the best way to sew in a zipper and get it in right the first time.

Here are three girls who won prizes for themselves and the Home Ec. room by submitting prize-winning recipes.

Training in Commercial Courses Will Introduce a Wide Variety of Jobs to You . . .

At the end of the year, these students hope to be able to increase their typing speed to a rate of 60 words per minute.

Skeptical eyes look on as Miss Everhart points out various letters, words, and brief forms in shorthand.

The Study of Languages and Geography Increase Student Awareness and Tolerance . . .

With the help of this bulletin board, Mrs. Cheney explains the crisis of the world to a partly-understanding group of students.

These foreign-looking students are now in their second year of French. Although there is a new method of teaching it this year, it still looks like the same old Greek to them.

Algebra and Science Stimulate Curiosity and Research . . .

These students are diligently working their minds as well as their fingers while they try to figure out a complicated Algebra problem.

Here we find Mr. Stuckey giving his biology students a lecture on the Cro-Magnon Cronium, or better known to us as a skeleton head.

Interest in Sports Produce Stamina . . .

We find these girls working fast and hard to get that ball away from the opposing team and down to the other end of the court.

Here we see one of the Colfax "Bulldogs" concentrating on making that all-important foul shot. "Bulldogs get that bonus shot."

ALMA MATER

Our strong band can ne'er be broken,
Formed in Colfax High.
Far surpassing wealth unspoken,
Seal'd by friendship's tie.

(Chorus)

Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Deep graven on each heart,
Shall be found unwavering true,
When we from life shall part.

Mem'ry's leaflets close shall twine
Around our hearts for aye,
And waft us back, o'er life's broad track,
To pleasures long gone by.

High School life at best is passing,
Gliding swiftly by;
Then let us pledge in word and deed,
Our love for Colfax High.

MAY THE GOOD LORD BLESS AND KEEP YOU

(Class Song)

May the Good Lord bless and keep you, Whether near or far away,
May you find that long awaited golden day today.
May your troubles all be small ones, And your fortune ten times ten,
May the Good Lord bless and keep you till we meet again.
May you walk with sunlight shining, And a blue-bird in every tree,
May there be a silver lining, Back of every cloud you see.

(CHORUS)

Fill your dreams with sweet tomorrows, Never mind what might have been,
May the Good Lord bless and keep you till we meet again.

May the Good Lord bless and keep you, Whether near or far away,
May the good you wish for others shine on you today.
May your heart stay tuned to music, That will cheer the hearts of men,
May the Good Lord bless and keep you till we meet again.
May you long recall the rainbows, Then you'll soon forget the rain,
May the warm and tender memories Be the ones that will remain.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

(Class Poem)

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black,
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

LAST WILL

We, the Senior Class, hereby will and bequeath a few of the possessions we have acquired during our twelve years of study at Colfax School. These possessions, we feel, will be of great help to the rising Seniors of '63.

Article I

We, The Senior Class, leave our gratitude and appreciation to Miss Everhart for the help she has given us in preparing the '62 edition of our yearbook, and to Mrs. Streetman who has been a great help to us since she came to Colfax.

Article II

I, Nancy Atchison, will my friendly ways to Peggy Welborn, provided that she speaks to everyone, everyday, with the exception of Donny.

I, Larry Atkins, will to Olivia Atkins my ability to get through 12 years of school without buying a single sheet of paper.

I, Philip Atkins, will my ability to be the "Most Talented" boy in the Senior Class to Jay Motsinger. "Always remember that the show must go on, Jay."

I, Harold Bame, bestow my courteous ways to Floyd Shields. "Use them well, Floyd."

I, Jewell Edwards, bestow my quiet ways upon Ronnie Beeson and Vicki Shields.

I, Frankie Fulk, will my ability to sing if I have Ilene beside me, to Brenda Hester and Martha Alley.

I, Ilene Fulk, will my ability to state my beliefs and hold to them to Hank Gribble and Flora LaRue.

I, Jimmy Hedgecock, will my unused bus license to Joe Thompson. "Make better use of them than I did, Joe."

I, Wayne Lawson, will my ability to get married, work, and still goof off at school to Lee Calloway.

I, Linda Lewis, bestow to Bonnie Gossett and Elaine Whitaker my ability to create new and "different" ways of styling my hair.

I, Mary Sue Linville, will my ability to figure out more ways to lay out of school to Larry Stafford with this warning, "Never use the same excuse twice, Larry."

AND TESTAMENT

I, Terry Marshall, leave my ability as star pitcher on the baseball team to anyone who thinks he can handle the job.

I, Benny McGee, will my ability to play basketball to Roger Duncan. "Keep trying, Duncan."

I, Larry Morgan, leave all my girl friends to Bernard Smith and Gerald Atkins.

I, Elizabeth Smith, will my seat on the gymnasium floor to Darrell Rayle. "Keep it clean, Dippy."

I, Linda Smith, will my ability to be the wittiest girl in the Senior Class to Patricia Hancock, "provided that you tell at least one joke a day, Patricia."

I, Pat Stafford, will my ability to have a variety of boy friends to Patsy Sapp and Janice Hunter. "It's all in the way you bat your eyelashes, Girls."

I, Ronnie Sykes, who always has something to say anytime, anyplace, bestow this gift upon Kitty Westmoreland and Johnny Motsinger.

I, Billy Joe Tilley, will my ability to be the most dependable boy in the Senior Class to Larry Morgan.

I, Shelby Tucker, leave everything I own to the Junior girls, except Rick, of course.

I, Charles VonCannon, will all my "beloved" and much studied?" books to Etta Cox and Wayne Atkins. "Long may you turn the pages."

I, Gary Voss, will my ability to speak French with a true French accent to Kit Seigler and W. J. Lawrence. "Au Revoir, Boys."

I, Josephine Westmoreland, will my ability to drive a car on the wrong side of the road to Woodson McGuire.

I, Anita Wier, leave my position in front of the Senior mirror to Leon Little and Janice Mills.

I, Rebecca Williard, will my ability to drive my school bus and only hit one mailbox to Wade Smith.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I sit here slowly turning through the pages of my Senior annual, my mind wanders back to ten years ago, to the 1962 graduating class of Colfax High. Many things have happened since those wonderful Senior days.

Mr. Bolen has retired and now lives a life of luxury on the warm sands of Wakiki Beach.

Mrs. Streetman finally got her dream of going to France, and now teaches in one of its largest schools. Linda Lewis is now owner and designer of "Paris Originals," the highest-priced dress shop in Paris. Becky Williard is her very stunning fashion model.

Larry Morgan has just been elected President of the United States and his private secretary, Pat Stafford, thinks he'll be the greatest president to ever enter the White House. Shelby Tucker is the head guide in the United Nation's building.

Benny McGee now has himself a band called "Little Ben's Combo." Along with him are Charles VonCannon as his piano player and Terry Marshall who plays the drums. They are presently playing at the Copa Cabanna where they have been for the past ten weeks.

Larry Atkins is owner and manager of "Goat's Twist Studio." Ronnie Sykes is his top instructor. They have just invented a new twist step, which the papers think is better than Chubby Checker's.

Frances Fulk and Mary Sue Linville have just set up a new beauty salon. Frances creates the hair styles and Mary Sue fixes them.

Ilene Fulk owns and manages "Ilene's Singing School." Jewel Edwards is her very efficient secretary.

Billy Joe Tilley and Wayne Lawson have been playing with the New York Yankees for the past five years. Their manager, Harold Bame, thinks that they'll be able to retire in another ten years.

Jimmy Hedgecock is a building contractor. He is currently working on building the world's largest bridge which will be located in his own home state, North Carolina.

Anita Wier is doing laboratory technician work in the Walter Reed Hospital with Elizabeth Smith as her very competent assistant.

Gary Voss is fast becoming one of Hollywood's top stars. It seems that he looked so much like Tarzan that Warner Brothers just couldn't resist hiring him.

Nancy Atchison is now a well-known novelist and is about to publish her new book, THIS BEAT GENERATION.

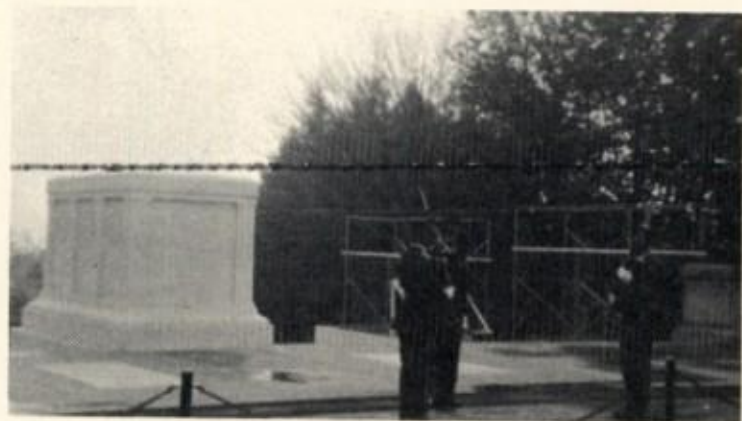

Linda Smith is top reporter on the New York Times and has just uncovered one of the largest narcotic rings in New York for which she was greatly rewarded.

As for myself, I am featured as top singing star in "The Pink Elephant," the largest night club in New York City and owned and managed by Philip Atkins.

COLFAX BULLDOGS

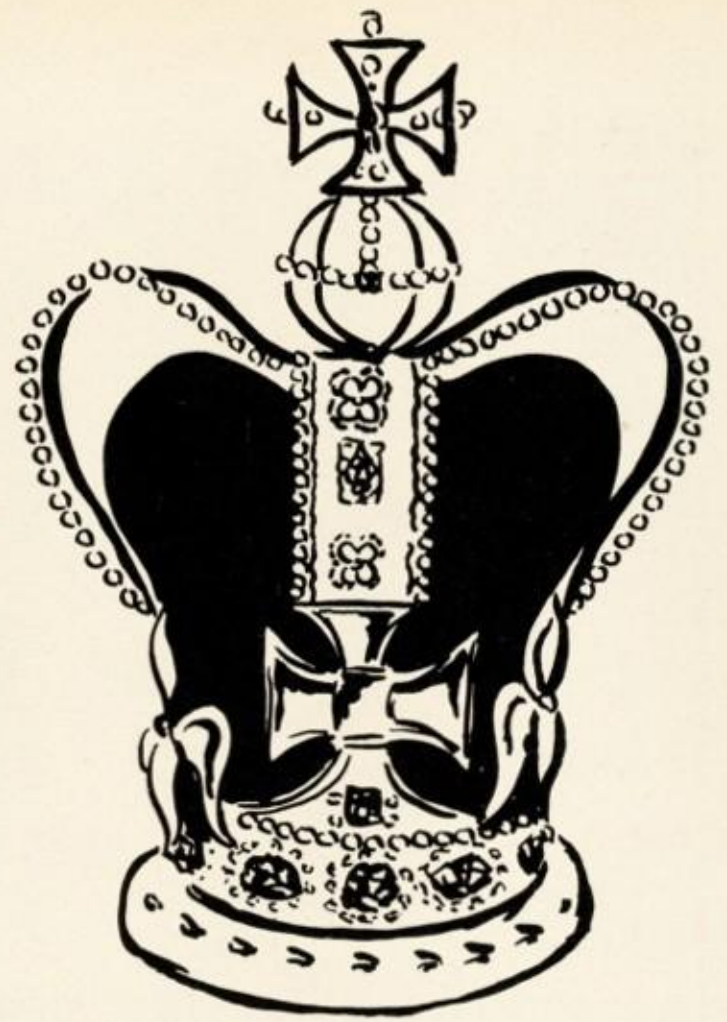

IN APPRECIATION OF . . . COACH ROGER NELSON

Because of his understanding of each individual student and his intelligent leadership, both scholastically and athletically, Mr. Roger Nelson has proved himself to be one of the most important factors in helping the students of Colfax High School acquire the right attitude and start in life.

For the past four years he has faithfully tried to maintain an athletic program that would be of value to the school and the students. Only last year, the boys' basketball team placed fourth in the Class A division in the state--not to mention the fact that two years ago the girls team won a second-place trophy in tournament play-offs in the county.

We are deeply grateful to have such a wonderful friend at such an important time in our life. The rewards of your services will never be forgotten, Mr. Nelson.

VALEDICTORIAN

LINDA LEWIS

The valedictory award is an award won by the student in the Senior class who has attained the highest grade average during four years of high school. This is perhaps the highest honor one can acquire and one to be very proud of. Linda won this honor with an average of 97.

SENIOR

SALUTATORIAN

PAT STAFFORD

This award is won by the student of the senior class who has the second highest grade average for the four years of high school. Pat acquired this honor with an average of 96.5. To win either of the two top awards should make anyone proud of himself. Others who qualified for the salutatory award are: Larry Morgan--average 95.1, Phillip Atkins--average 94.5, and Jo Westmoreland--average 93.6.

CIVITAN AWARD

JOSEPHINE WESTMORELAND

The qualifications for this award are character, scholastic ability, integrity, and leadership. The winner, a senior, is elected by a vote of the juniors and seniors and the high school faculty. Other students who were nominated for this award are Larry Morgan, Philip Atkins, Linda Lewis, and Pat Stafford.

AWARDS

BETTY CROCKER AWARD

LINDA LEWIS

Betty Crocker made a search for homemakers of tomorrow in schools throughout the 50 states. Linda Lewis rated highest at Colfax and therefore received a badge of honor symbolizing that "Home is Where the Heart Is."

IMAGINATION!

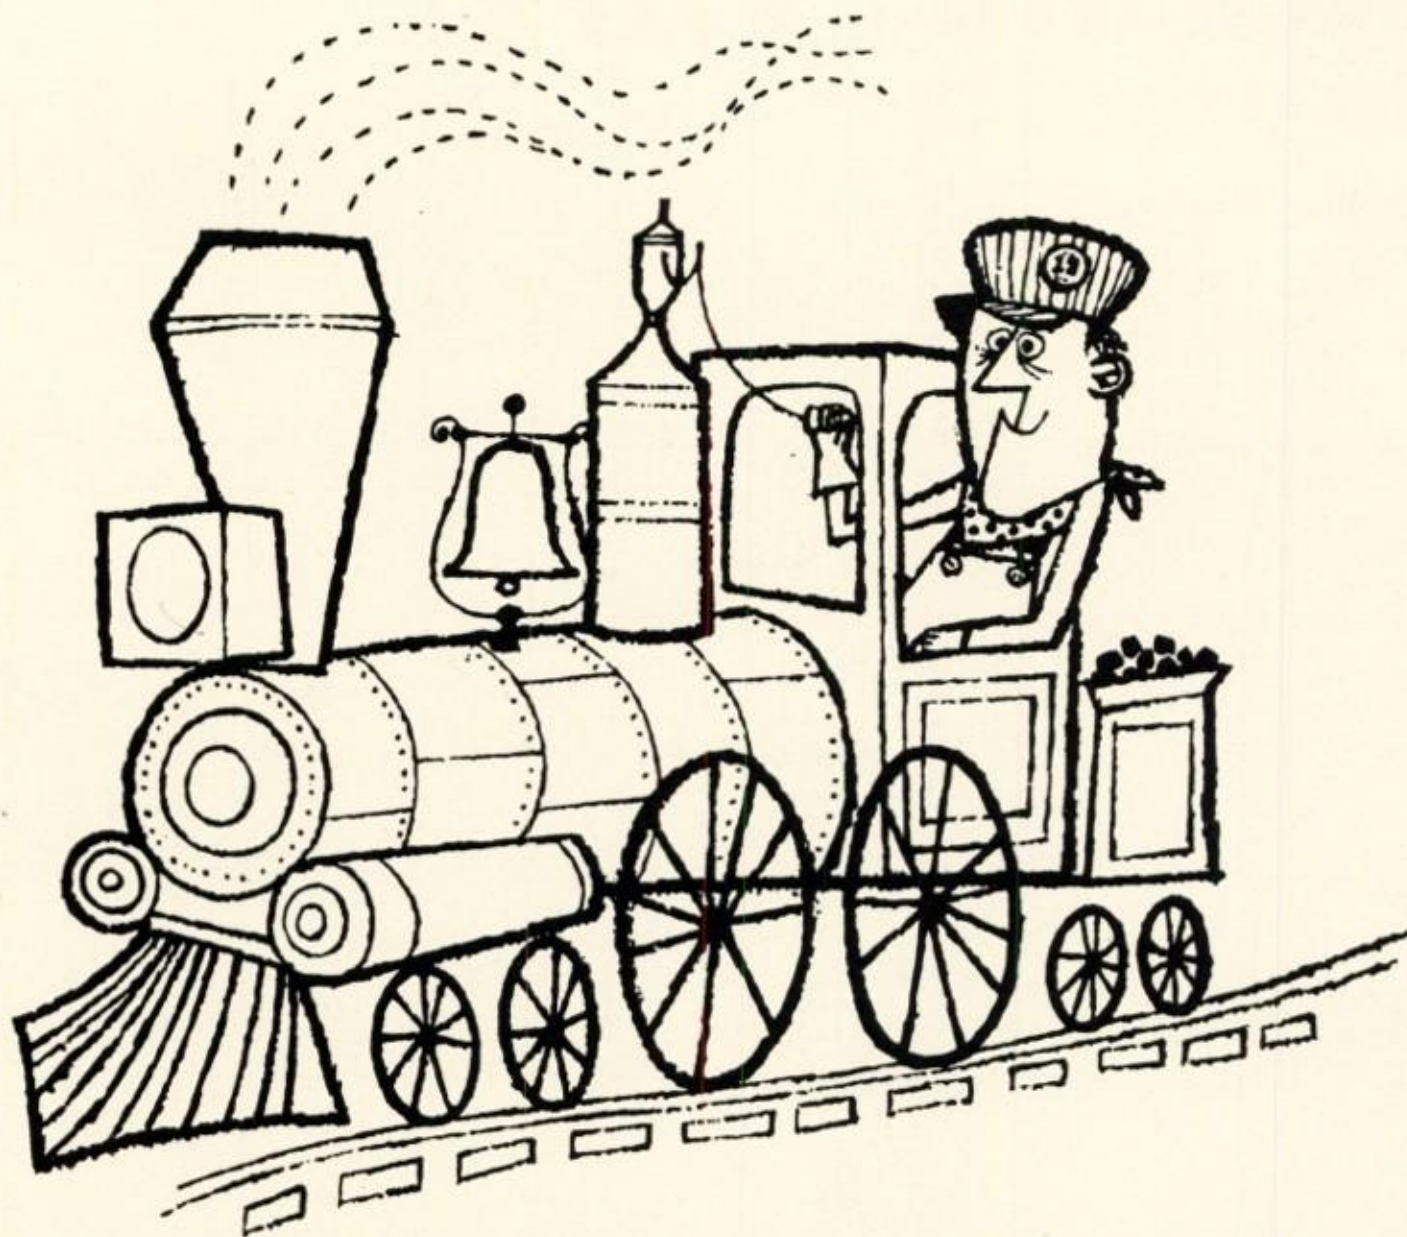

Imagination is important to a young person. It is also important to a business. It has been a major impetus to the progress and growth of Cone Mills. We at Cone are looking for young people with imagination . . . because it takes imagination to live up to our slogan: "Where fabrics of tomorrow are woven today."

CONE MILLS CORPORATION

EXECUTIVE OFFICES: GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

"Where fabrics of tomorrow are woven today."

Giving up on being a R. R. Engineer?

Through with your childhood dreams of being a railroad engineer, cowboy or U. S. Marshal? For a practical career opportunity, consider textiles, this state's industrial backbone! J. P. Stevens is a leader in the great textile industry, producing a wide range of fabrics to meet the demands of a growing America. Stevens needs intelligent young people who welcome the challenge of progress. Check with your vocational counselor or come to see us.
